BASIC-ABSTRACT:

NOVELTY - The holding element comprises a firm basic frame (1) with a circular-shaped top (6), which can be hung across the curtain rail holding a shower curtain (2). Hooks, small trays, etc. can be joined to both sides of the frame (1) to accommodate shampoo, soap, sponge, towel, etc. Items, which are supposed to stay dry, can be attached to the holding facilities (3) positioned at the outer surface of the shower curtain (2), while items, needed for bathing, can be hung or placed inside.

USE - The holding element can be used in a bathroom.

ADVANTAGE - The space at both sides of the shower curtain can be used for storing bathroom utensils.

DESCRIPTION OF DRAWING(S) - The drawing shows a front view of the device.
